DIRECTOR, AUDIENCE SERVICES

Dear Mr. Crawford:

January 2, 2008

I am replying to your request that 60 MINUTES investigate a matter about which you are concerned.

We regret to learn of the difficulties you are facing, but must inform you that, after careful consideration, 60 MINUTES has decided not to report on them. As you know, each edition of 60 MINUTES is limited to only three subjects that must be selected from among dozens that could conceivably -- and justifiably -- be explored. The staff cannot investigate any matters not selected for on-air reports, as they must concentrate their efforts and resources on preparing broadcast material.

Although we cannot help you, we hope that you will find assistance through other avenues.

Cordially,

Ray
